Foreword . . .

This book is of our times . . . of studies, of teachers, of athletics, of dances . . . In years to come these pages will evoke nostalgic memories, although for each of us, the significance of a picture or of a word will be different. We have not tried to record every experience, but rather we have represented here those events which will mean most to us in the future.

It is the wish of the yearbook staff to recall for everyone, happy and poignant memories.

Fall Activities

Highlighting the fall season were the football games spirited by the enthusiasm and excitement of the student body, and brought to a climax by the successful Pigskin Social. This fourth annual dance, an informal affair honoring the football team and cheerleaders, was sponsored by the sophomore and junior classes. The girls' gym was attractively decorated in a fall motif, and in red and black. An enjoyable time was experienced by all who attended this first dance of the school season. Not only were the boys participating in their activities at this time, but also the senior and junior girls were seen out on Eldon Keith Field playing intramural field hockey. When the interclass games were concluded, the senior class squad had won the championship. For the first time in many years, the seniors enjoyed a match with the Sumner High School girls of Holbrook, playing half the game against them, and the other half with them. The cross country team had a very successful season this year, winning five out of seven meets. There were several outstanding senior performers, who benefited the team to a great extent. Concluding this fall season was the presentation of the senior class play, "January Thaw," by the senior actors and actresses. "January Thaw," the story of the trials and tribulations of the Gage family, was produced on Broadway in 1946. The entire cast performed like a Broadway cast and made December 2, 1955, an enjoyable evening of rollicking fun and merriment.

Football Team

Under the able tutelage of Coach Frank L. Saba with his assistants, Mr. William T. Parsons and Mr. John A. Sarson, the 1955 B. H. S. football team was a well-drilled yet somewhat inexperienced outfit. In all fairness to the team, it must be said that the record of three victories and four defeats is no proper indication of the team's strength. The backfield, composed of Co-Captain Dick Franciosi, George Bagas, Robert Deighton and Jack Condon, was a veteran combination which possessed both versatility and power. The line was anchored down by Co-Captain and center John Cullinane, who was flanked by two dependable and determined guards, Jack Beckford and Howard Beals. The wingmen included Co-Captain Elect Joe Cerci, Bob Burke and Barry Walsh. Others who saw constant action throughout the season were tackles Paul Clancy, Edward Bumpus and Co-Captain Elect Ernest Webby. We congratulate our football boys for their fine playing and excellent display of sportsmanship through the entire season.

Pigskin Social

The first dance of the High School season, the Pigskin Social, held in the Brockton High girls' gym, was a social success in honor of the Brockton High football team. On either end of the gym, there were goalposts with football players making touchdowns. Besides these posts, the gymnasium was gaily decorated with smaller football megaphones, shakers, and streamers, all in red and black. The sophomore and junior classes certainly made this dance a tremendous success!

Field Hockey

Back row: Miss Wilkins, Patricia Lyons, Elaine Dayos, Marilyn Lyons, Stevia Dounelis, Patricia Gutauskas, Frances McCormack, Sonia Bernard, Alice Noonan, Joyce Johnson, Janice Dubois, Geraldine Asiaf, Miss Brooks.

The first major intramural sport of the season was field hockey, which was open to senior and junior girls. Practically every sunny fall day girls clad in green and yellow gym suits were seen at Eldon Keith Field. Hockey sticks, shin guards, and excitement prevailed. After the senior girls won the intramural championship, they played a game with the Sumner High School girls of Holbrook. In this game the Brockton girls played the first half of the game against their guests, and the other half with them.

Cross Country

The Cross Country Team, under the able direction of Coach Harry H. Reuell, has had a successful season winning four out of seven meets and beating six out of nine competitors. The team also placed third in the South Shore Meet. Outstanding senior performers on the team included: David Fisher, Co-Captains Robert DeMarco and Richard Dupee.

Winter Activities

Every year the Christmas Pageant is one of the most outstanding presentations by the student body at B.H.S. Tireless efforts are put in by the Dramatic Club. In addition to the Dramatic Club, the musical organizations play a most important part in making the pageant the success it always is.

"Starlight Blues," the theme of this year's Junior-Senior Prom, was held in the B.H.S. hall, January 21. The auditorium, beautifully decorated with glittering stars in a blue background, gave a heavenly impression to everything. Shining notes and G clefs were also part of the decorations, stressing the musical "blues" in the theme. The prom introduced a beautiful array of colors as seen in the gowns worn by the girls that night.

The Student Council sponsored a dance, the Hoopsters Hop, in honor of our basketball team, the proud possessors of a 17-1 record for the season. The students enjoyed an evening of dancing to records played by our own senior disc jockey, David Lessard.

To commemorate George Washington's birthday, an assembly was presented by the Dramatic Club for all three classes. Tableaux depicting Valentines that might have been exchanged between George Washington and his wife, Martha, were artistically given with accompanying music.

While the boys' varsity basketball team was practicing hard and diligently for their games, the girls, too, were participating in intramural basketball. Each class had its own league of teams, which played one another in their respective leagues. From these teams, the class basketball squads were selected to play the championship. The senior girls, the champions, concluded their successful season with the Faculty-Varsity game.

Throughout the winter months, girls were constantly kept busy with the badminton tournament. This tournament consisted of doubles and singles and extended over a long period.

Less often mentioned are the boys' foul-shooting, intramural basketball, rope-pulling, and broad jump contests. Although these are not given the prestige of varsity basketball and other major and minor sports, they are very important because they give other boys, not able to participate in varsity sports, the chance to display their skills and talents.

Christmas Pageant

Celebrating the Christmas Season was an impressive assembly commemorating birth of the Christ child. Not only did sophomores, juniors, and seniors attend this assembly, but there were many graduates who enjoyed the program. This was one of the outstanding features in the entire school year and represented many hours of preparation by the musical groups under the direction of Mr. Robert A. White, Mr. Rodney F. May, and Mr. Walter M. Smith. The Dramatic Club arranged religious tableaux under the leadership of Miss Rose H. Condon. Much credit and praise should be given to Miss Beatrice L. Bosworth, general chairman; Miss Eleanor Simmons, costuming; and Mr. John W. Metcalf, Jr. and Miss Ruth M. Stokes, makeup. The impressive and colorful Christmas scenes in the pageant will long be remembered by all who had the pleasure of viewing them and listening to the beautiful background of music.

Basketball Team

This year's basketball team, under the fine coaching of Mr. Gordon McKernan, was definitely tourney bound from the start of the season because of the return of a veteran squad sparked by the excellent rebounding of Captain Eddie Burke, Dick Chilauskas, and Dick Mapp, and the fine driving and ball handling of Carl Floren, David Norling and Tommy Pavao. Valuable substitutes included Garo Arevian, William Donahue, and Dick Franciosi.

On the basis of a fine season's record, which included only one defeat to North Quincy, the team qualified for the Eastern Massachusetts Tourney and defeated Somerville and Lawrence before being stopped by Winchester in the semi-finals.

Leading scorer and three-year veteran Eddie Burke was chosen for the All Scholastic Team.

Third row: John McDonough, John Hartwell, David French, Richard Puffer.

Senior-Junior Prom

With blues in music and color as its theme, "Starlight Blues" was held in the B. H. S. auditorium January 21. For many weeks before the prom the senior and junior class officers and their friends were busily engaged in making the beautiful decorations. Arranged on the walls were silhouettes in blue of couples dancing, while a still larger silhouette with stars in the background on a black border served as a backdrop for the patrons and patronesses. There were beautiful glittering stars and musical notes which added to the splendor of the decorations. Credit should also be given to the stagecraft crew for the excellent work that they did.

Swimming Team

Although the record shows a rather unsuccessful season for the Brockton High swimming team, Coach William T. Parsons's boys fared considerably better than is apparent. Winning their share of first places, the natators lacked sufficient depth to capture the meets. Outstanding for Brockton this season were Brian McSweeney in the breaststroke, James Marachino in the backstroke, and Edward Fernandes in the 220-yard free style. The rest of the team, although they took few points, practiced diligently three days a week at the Y. M. C. A. pool, and deserve much credit.

Faculty-Varsity Game

The third annual Faculty-Varsity basketball game was held March 27, at the West Junior High gymnasium. This hilarious exhibition, put on by the faculty and by the students on the boys' and girls' basketball teams, was to raise money for a scholarship to be awarded by the Brockton Teachers' Association to a senior interested in the teaching profession. Some of the highlights of the evening were the "bloomer-girl" cheerleaders consisting of the women faculty members, a boxing match between the faculty and the boys' varsity squad, a football game, and, in between times, snacks consisting of submarine sandwiches. Everyone contributed in the all-round merriment and enjoyment of that night, and it will not be forgotten.

Spring Activities

"Lo! where the rosy-bosm'd Hours,
Fair Venus' train appear
Disclose the long-expecting flowers,
And wake the purple year!"

Although most of us thought that Spring had finally arrived, Mother Nature didn't quite agree with us. The calendar read March 21, yet, upon looking outside, one could see a blanket of snow covering the ground for miles around. The spring activities had to fight an almost losing battle against the elements and had to delay their opening days to later dates. The enthusiasm of the students was high, and all were eagerly awaiting the coming events. It seemed that the baseball team would have to play on Eldon Keith field with boots and winter clothes instead of their normal spring uniforms. There was a question whether to go skiing or to play baseball. After a delay the team started its highly successful season. The inclement weather, however, didn't prevent the musical organizations of the school from participating in various concerts. The All-City Music Festival, in which the Band, the Male Chorus, and the Girls' Glee Club participated, proved to be a night of great entertainment for all. After this concert the Harmonics, Girls' Glee Club, Galloneers, Male Chorus, and the band participated in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival in Needham. With the coming of warmer weather, the tennis and golf teams began their activities. Our dancers made merry when the Senior Prom was held in a beautiful marine setting with decorations of fishes and marine colors. Another important event during the spring was the delightful and amusing Talent Show presented by the Dramatic Club. To make a direct contrast, the spirit of warmth and ardor seemed to melt the cold and harshness of the weather.

Baseball Team

The last of the three major sports at Brockton High is baseball, our national sport. This year's team, coached by Mr. Norman B. Nash, was unable to begin practices as early as had been planned because of the wet conditions of the field from late-season snows. Until the field dried sufficiently, the pitchers worked-out indoors, and thus were able to condition their arms in time for the first game. Despite the handicap from the weather the team got off to an excellent start, winning five of its six games, in a fifteen-game schedule. One reason for this fine start, was that there were seven boys on this year's squad who were regulars last season. Included among this group was the team captain, George Bagas. Another strong point was the pitching staff, which consisted of five dependable hurlers, some of whom played another position when not on the mound. Following the theory that practice makes perfect, Coach Nash's boys practiced at Eldon Keith Field every day that there was no game.

Although anything can happen in baseball, at this writing the team is anticipating a most successful season.

Second row: Joseph Gambrazzio, Robert Hughes, Thomas Pavao, Alvin Lendh, William Frawley, George Bagas, Carl Floren.

Third row: Barry Walsh, Edward Burke, John Hynes, John Condon, Kenneth Stevens, Roland Sergio, Coach Norman Nash.

Senior Prom

The Senior Prom of '56 was held in a beautiful marine setting. The gym was beautifully decorated in twisted green and blue crepe paper streamers extended across the balcony. A backdrop of waves was around the walls of the gym with fish nets above containing all different kinds of tropical fish in assorted colors. The dance band was at one end of the gym, which was roped off to resemble the deck of a ship. Such unforgettable lifesavers as "S. S. Griffin," "S. S. B. H. S.," and "S. S. '56" were seen in various corners of the gym. To complete the decorations, the class banner was displayed on one of the backboards.

Golf

Second row: Mr. Lynch, Daniel Prusaitis, Theodore Phaneuf, Robert Thorburn, Vincent Kondrotas.

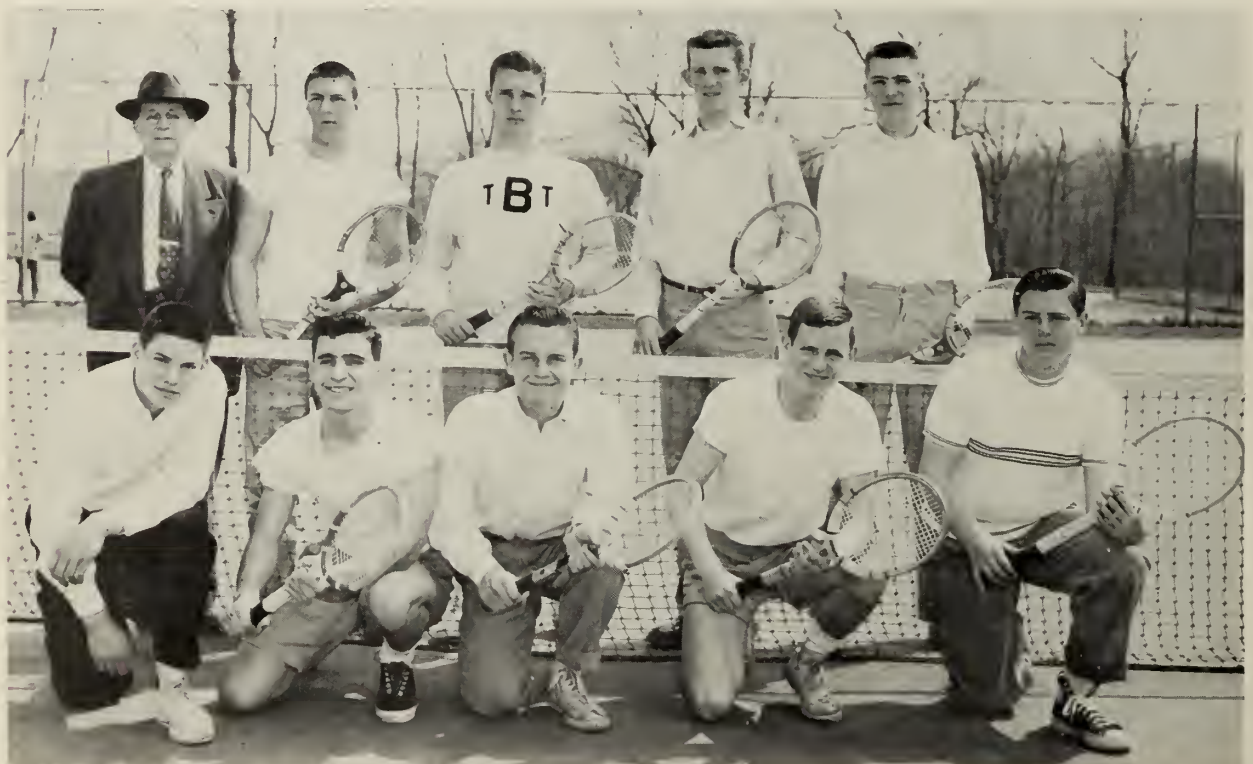

Playing under its new coach, Mr. Thomas G. Lynch, the Brockton High Golf Team got off to a fine start, winning eight of its first nine matches. Their only loss was to Dartmouth, a loss which they later avenged 6-3. In addition to Captain Jerry Siegel, there are five seniors on the eight-man team. Although the team is not competing in a league this year, Jerry Siegel and David Fisher will represent Brockton at the State Golf Tourney at the Concord Golf Course early in June.

"B" Sweatshirts and Sweaters

Every year a rather large number of girls who have participated in athletics since the sophomore year receive a special award of a sweatshirt with an old English "B" on it. This sweatshirt represents the accumulation of 150 points throughout the sophomore, junior, and senior years at B. H. S. For participating in a sport, a girl receives 10 points. In addition to this, 5 points are received for playing on a championship team, for becoming captain of a team, and for being a member of the class team. Members of Sports Council receive 25 points a year for working an allotted number of hours to earn these points. A few girls, in addition to receiving the sweatshirt, are awarded a sweater with a chenille block "B" on it to represent the accumulation of 225 points. In the above picture the girls receiving both awards are seated in the front row.

Graduation

Valedictory

Although it is the popular conception that a college degree is the prime requisite for an educated person, in reality this is far from true. Some of mankind's most significant achievements are the work of men of little formal education, whose inquiring minds knew no bounds of classroom, lecture hall, or textbook. Thomas Edison and Abraham Lincoln, among others, although lacking in schooling, nevertheless made immeasurable contributions to our way of life; and Erasmus, the Dutchman, possibly the first European to live exclusively for learning, toured the countries in his search for knowledge, teaching and inspiring scholars wherever he went.

Although some of us may have felt that formal schooling, so far, has been a burden to us which had to be attended to, nevertheless, the quantity and quality—may I say—of our learning, formal or informal, will probably be the basis of what we accomplish with our lives, and of what peace and happiness we give to our families and neighbors; and at some future day, we shall certainly appreciate the advantages and opportunities which we do not now perhaps fully comprehend.

Even before that day arrives, we must begin to try to translate our youthful learning into action in our everyday adult lives. If, for instance, Benjamin Franklin had merely stored up his wealth of knowledge, as an atomic stockpile stores up radiation, he would never have made his mark upon the world. So it is with us. In whatever field of endeavor we choose, let us do our best to use the stockpile of knowledge at our disposal for the advantage of those around us, as well as ourselves, that we may give evidence of our capability to tackle a job and do it well. Also, let us make the most of our situations, and take personal interest and individual pride in the finished product of our labors, however unimportant they may seem to the observer.

Meanwhile, we must be awake to the need of continuing our education by extensive reading, and by observation of conditions in our environment, hoping that through study we may help to solve certain of the serious issues which exist in our society today: for instance, world peace, segregation, living standards for backward peoples, and the betterment of world health. These are problems which require the deepest wisdom of every thoughtful mind, especially that of the educated man.

And what constitutes an educated man? There are two aspects characteristic of such a person; they may be considered negatively and positively.

On the negative side, he will not be turned away from his goal, nor will he dissipate his energies on false objectives; he will not hesitate to speak the truth as it appears to him, nor find the ideas of others unwelcome; he will not be deceived by self-seeking prophets, but will turn away from their cynical propaganda.

He will, however, maintain an unquenchable curiosity for all good phases of life; he will be kind, courteous, and tactful, both to his friends and to those who he knows do not like him; he will keep an open and independent mind, seeing both sides of any conflict and condemning only what is wrong, not what differs from his opinions; he will seek out the cultural and beautiful, and appreciate that his diploma is a beginning, not an end; he will be courteous in standing by his beliefs; he will accept misfortune philosophically, realizing that sometimes the world may defeat him temporarily to make him think; he will grow from his failures and make them a spur to greater achievement; he will need a minimum of society's discipline, for he will have been trained to self-discipline; he will try to live justly and honorably, without false pride; he will face an uncertain future with optimism and hope; and most important of all, he will revere his God and keep the Ten Commandments which are set down to be followed.

As we graduate, may we keep these basic ideals in mind. We live in challenging times, offering boundless opportunities to the young to prove their worth. By doing our best to hold fast to honorable principles, we, too, may sometime be considered educated men and women, always mindful of the old philosopher's comment:

"Knowledge is proud she knows so much;
Wisdom is humble she knows no more."

Class History

- Sept. 8—Opening Day—Here we were—finally at B. H. S.! Strangers in a so-called Paradise. Our first task was to make out our schedules—and then we were on our own!!!
- Sept. 9—Our first real day of classes—familiar questions that we asked of the "big" upperclassmen—"Where's the swimming pool?" "Where do we get the elevator?"
- Sept. 26—Our first football game! Boy, was it great to be able to sit in the cheering section, and look at the junior high kids sitting in their own section.
- Nov. 21—Pigskin Social. Our first honest-to-goodness dance at B. H. S. We were beginning to feel more at home now, because we were more familiar with everyone—including the upperclassmen!
- Nov. 23—Report Cards. The dreadful day arrived. Just when we were having so much fun! Oh well, we'll do better next time. After all, it was only our first quarter at B. H. S., and it was all so different from Junior High.
- Nov. 26—Thanksgiving Day Game and a nice long weekend to relax in. Boy, the football game was sure exciting!
- Dec. 18—Basketball season began! Brother, what a great team we had. We knew we would hear more from them, and we certainly did.
- Dec. 23—Christmas Pageant. The Christmas Spirit was everywhere throughout B. H. S. The Dramatic Club and musical organizations displayed their talents in the ever-beautiful pageant.
- Jan. 4—Back we came from vacation—the beginning of a brand-new year. Resolutions were made galore—but also broken!
- Mar. 2—We came back from another vacation—and it's Tech Tourney time!!!!
- Mar. 10-15—Champs!!! That was our basketball team, who captured the Tech Tourney title! What a thrill to go to Boston Gardens to see those ever terrific games.
- Mar. 11—Sophomore speeches. Our candidates for class office had to give their speeches before the whole class.
- Mar. 22—Election Day. What an exciting day for all. We felt so proud to be able to vote for the kids we wanted in office.
- May 5—Cheerleaders chosen. On this day practically every sophomore girl was waiting to see if she were to be one of the girls to be chosen a cheerleader for the next two years.
- June 7-10—Class Week. After this week, which everyone was waiting for anxiously, all classes moved up one notch on the ladder.

Our sophomore year held many new experiences for us . . . it was a year of firsts. We were all from different junior highs and knew only the kids from our own schools. Then we became a living part of B. H. S. with all the homework, sports, and fun. Our first class officers were President, Jerry Siegel; Vice-President, Alice Nconan; Secretary, Barbara Riley; Treasurer, Roberta Richards, and Executive Committee, Sonia Bernard, Janice Dubois, Kathleen Ford, Richard Welch, and Robert Dodd.

JUNIOR YEAR: 1954-1955

- Sept. 9—Here we were back again. This year we were more devilish and daring than we were as sophomores.
- Sept. 25—Football season began. A happy time for all going to the football games on Saturday afternoons and cheering the team on to victory.
- Nov. 19—Pigskin Social!!! Third annual Pigskin Social held in the girls' gym and sponsored by the junior and senior classes.
- Nov. 23—Thanksgiving and a short vacation which was needed by all.
- Dec. 3—The busy season began again with Christmas work, practice for the pageant, and other preparations.
- Dec. 17—Basketball season started. Once again we had a championship team.
- Dec. 23—Christmas Pageant. Once again this annual affair was beautiful and well done.
- Jan. 3—A New Year and we were ready to settle down again?
- Jan. 21—Junior-Senior Prom. Our first real class prom, terrific!!!!
- Feb. 18—Hoopsters' Hop—A dance sponsored by the Student Council to honor the basketball team.
- Mar. 4-8—Bay State Tourney. Once again we were the Champs!!!
- Mar. 17—Junior Elections. Our last chance to vote for the officers who would serve for the rest of our time at B. H. S.
- Apr. 26—Junior Ushers chosen. Twenty-seven lucky boys and twenty-seven lucky girls were chosen to represent our class during class week.
- June 6-9—Class Week. Once again we stepped up a notch to become Seniors. Next year we thought it would be our chance.

SENIOR YEAR: 1955-1956

- Sept. 19—After postponement of a week and a half, school finally opened for us as we started our all-important Senior Year. This was the year we began to think seriously about colleges and other plans for after graduation.
Football Season began. With co-captains John Cullinane and Richard Franciosi we all hoped for a successful last football season.
- Nov. 18—Pigskin Social. Although we did not sponsor this dance, it turned out to be very successful under the sophomores and juniors.
- Nov. 24—Thanksgiving Day Game. This was our last football game as members of B. H. S.
- Dec. 2—Class Play night! "January Thaw" was presented by our class and it was terrific! It turned out to be a tremendous success because of all the diligent and hard work put in by all—the cast, the committees, and the faculty.
- Dec. 16—Basketball began with a boom. Our first game against Newton brought us our first of 17 wins against one defeat.
- Dec. 23—Christmas Pageant. Everyone appreciated the efforts of all concerned in making this a beautiful and inspiring assembly.
- Jan. 14—Scholastic Aptitude exams. Boy, were they stiff!!!
- Jan. 20—Junior-Senior Prom—"Starlight Blues"—Our last dance sponsored jointly with the juniors.
- Feb. 17—"Hoopster's Hop"—Once more a "last" for us.
- Mar. 2, 8, 9—Tech Tourney. Everyone went to Brandeis and then to Boston Gardens to cheer our team on to victory. Excitement and anxiety reigned throughout the school.
- Mar. 17—Achievements and Scholastics once again. Back to the old grind!!!
- Apr. 14—A much needed and deserved vacation, but also our last.
- Apr. 27—Senior Prom—An outstandingly successful event for all Seniors and their guests.
- June 4—Field Day. A beautiful exhibition was performed by all three classes . . . then off we went to the beach!!!
Class Night—A night of fun for all the seniors . . . the prophecy and history were acted out by the class week officers. The climax was drawing near.
- June 5—Class Day—Presentation of scholarships, president's message read.
- June 6—We went back for our report cards, our final ones, and practiced for the big day which was becoming nearer and nearer all the time.
- June 7—This was it. We were finally through the three happy years. GRADUATION DAY!!!! Everyone was both happy and sad, because our days at B. H. S. had ended.
- Senior year ended our days at B. H. S. We had as our class officers Jerry Siegel, Alice Noonan, Barbara Riley, Roberta Richards, Sonia Bernard, Janice Dubois, Kathy Ford, Richard Welch, and Robert Dodd, under class adviser Miss Pauline Hoyt. Now we're all going our own separate ways into the world—some to institutions of higher learning, others into the armed forces, and still others into the business world to earn their way. These three golden years we shall always cherish as three of the best years of our lives. Brockton High has prepared us well for our future life. We are all confident that our work in the future will be a credit to our high school, and we hope each 1956 graduate has derived the most from these three short years, which we will never ever forget!!!!

Class Poem

By MARIETTA CARRIUOLO

Here ends first chapter in life's book,
And as we glance it through,
Each page shows precious mem'ries sweet,
Of school friends staunch and true.

Yet comrades all, in buoyant mood,
Now look toward future day;
When ideals learned, preceptors wise,
Will guide us on our way.

Sometimes our path may seem obscure,
When storm clouds veil the sun;
But our young hearts will never flinch!
Toil on—till tasks are done!

Soon birds above will warble strains—
Melodious message true—
Of inspiration and of hope,
And of Divine help, too.

So, give us grace to do Thy will,
We pray Thee, Lord Divine;
That we may dauntless tread life's lanes,
Led on by light benign

Then Alma Mater's blessing clear
Will ring like crystal bell:
"To all kind wishes from the heart—
Good Luck! Good Health! Farewell!"

Class Ode

Our book of life has opened wide,
With pages crisp and new.
With God's love always as our guide,
Success should follow through.

These years that passed so swiftly by,
We never shall forget.
To gain our goal we had to try
The hardest ever yet.

One chapter in our book of life
Has closed for us today.
Alone into the world of strife,
Each one goes on his way.

The years that lie before us now
Will hold both joy and pain.
We'll seek the most the Fates allow
And prove life's not in vain.

Our book of life continues on,
With destiny so near.
Each day will bring another dawn,
And faith will banish fear.

Historians

Memories of the past three years at Brockton High were brought back to the seniors by the Class Historians, who diligently delved into the past and turned back the pages of time to present their version of our Class History.

Prophets

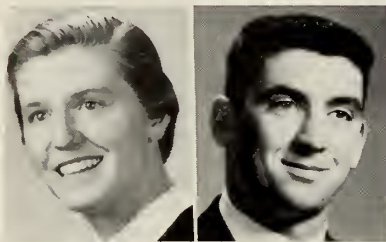

What does the future hold for us? The Class Prophets gazed far into their crystal balls and humorously foretold the happenings in our lives in years to come. Their clever antics and wise fortune tellings will long be remembered by all seniors after Class Night.

Activities

Activities

On the following pages is a record of those clubs and extra-curricular activities that have contributed a great deal to our enjoyment of the past three years. We recall with pleasure, and a little nostalgia, our own part in them and are proud to have belonged. As we look back over the past three years, we regret that we did not play harder, study more, and that time did not permit us to join more of these groups. We realize now how much they have helped us to learn to get along well with others.

We especially want to mention the Male Chorus for which we have no photograph. Their music at concerts, in the Christmas Pageant and on many other occasions gave us a great deal of pleasure. The following boys make up the membership of that group: Francis Belanger, Ronald Brosseau, Richard Kimball, Edward McKenzie, Philip Metcalf, Joseph Mullins, Madison Ripley, Paul St. James, Wayne Smith, Wayne Staples, Edwin Wiesner, Fred Stetson, William Stoddard, Edward Sullivan, Owen Valentine, Arthur White, James Bourque, Robert Boysen, Robert Burke, John Crenney, Richard Dodd, Joseph Donahue, Robert Doucette, Theodore Florio, David Harding, Walter Howell, Vincent Kendrates, Peter Lalli, Robert Lincoln, James Waldron, David Lovell, John Newsom, Kenneth Porter, Carl Smith, Carl Sondeen, Paul Sullivan, Richard Valetkevicz, Sherman Bowers, Paul Clancy, Carl Crealese, Robert DeChristopher, Richard DiSalle, John Dockery, Robert Dodd, David Dupuis, Frank Fisher, Stephen Gell, Edward Gershman, Robert Maglof, Dennis Healy, Wayne Karlson, Russell Kelly, David Lessard, James Maillane, David Nash, Caneron Rix, Richard Solomon, James Sullivan, Anthony Tamoshaitus, Douglas Todd, John Valetkevicz, Eugene Alfonso, Howard Beal, Barry Broderick, Albert Bruni, Stanley Danielczyk, Robert Dears, John deKoning, Frank Fisher, William Hallinan, Thomas Healy, Dwight Holton, Bruce Jones, Dexter Landers, Austin Lyons, Walter Mignault, Gordon Pierce, Peter Rubbe, Michael Shippee, James Stevens, John Strangis, Paul Tosca. The faculty director was Mr. Rodney May.

Senior Class Officers

The Class Officers, under the direction of Miss Pauline L. Hoit, have worked faithfully to unite and guide our class. Good luck, Jerry, Alice, Barbara, and Berda; we appreciate your fine work.

Executive Committee

Cutting and pasting! Kathy, Janice, Sonia, Bobby and Dickie have made everything this year—from G clefs to fishes! The success of our class activities is due to the help and loyalty of our Executive Committee, and for this, the class is sincerely grateful.

 Second row: James Bourque, Brenda Booth, Richard Di Salle.
 Third row: Brenda Erickson, George A. Mapp, Patricia Pupello.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Student Council

Under the leadership of President Christy Badgio, Vice-President Jane Kirker, Treasurer Richard Mapp, and Secretary Sandra McLellan, and executive committee members Ann Blunt, Roberta Palmiero, Judith Dunnington, Marlene Mason, Richard Arruda, Betty Colberg, and Jerry Siegel (parliamentarian), the Student Council, consisting of one representative from each home room, has carried on a busy program this year. Money raised by selling almost 4000 book covers helped pay for the printing of the Student Guides, a project which was for the first time assumed entirely by the Council. Other activities included the now-annual "Hoopsters' Hop" and volunteer Red Cross work by the members of the Red Cross committee: Marietta Carriuolo, Mary Williams, Ann Blunt, Jayne Brennan, Ann Corcoran, Beatrice Piesco, Joyce Ippolito, Mary Wood, and various assistants from the Council. Congratulations to the Council on their fine work.

Dues Collectors

"Help make our class go from rags to riches." This phrase has echoed from the lips of all the dues collectors this past year. Because these girls served efficiently, the riches were gathered and we have our yearbook.

Yearbook Staff

The yearbook staff, under the able direction of Mr. Archibald Kelly, Miss Catherine A. Tuttle and Miss Dorothy J. Goodridge, has produced an entirely new yearbook. With originality as our theme we have composed a book with an air of freshness and informality from cover to cover. The staff derived great pleasure from our weekly meetings and took genuine pride in our accomplishment. We extend our heartiest thanks to our advisers, to Miss Beatrice L. Bosworth and the commercial staff, and to all the other teachers and pupils who assisted us.

Second row: Barbara Dama.ino, Rita Kumpa, Arlene Paull, Kathleen Ford.

"Brocktonia"

Once again "Brocktonia," with its five big issues, tried to keep the school up in the news. One of the real firsts this year was more and better pictures taken by our photographer, William Marks. The literary staff, coedited by Judith White and Stevia Dounelis, with Mr. Hopkins as adviser, worked hard. A great deal of credit is due to the business staff, managed by Roberta Palmiero with Mr. Nash as adviser. This staff always had the advertisements ready and made possible the sale of the newspaper. Our thanks to all who had a part in producing "Brocktonia" for this year.

Hi-Y

This year the Brockton Hi-Y Club, under the direction of Malcolm Brooks, has had a wide variety of projects and activities. Some of the highlights which made this year a successful one for the club were outstanding speakers such as Mr. Kenneth Sampson, who described the function of the school board; a Teacher-Pupil Banquet, which proved that the pupils and faculty can be great friends; and a Three Faiths Program, which included visits to each of the three churches. The club will, we know, continue its principles of "service and devotion to the home, school, and community."

Part Timers

During the past year, under the supervision of Miss Beatrice L. Bosworth, the part time pupils have performed a valuable service for the Brockton School System. We see these girls working industriously as secretaries in the junior high and high school offices. Keeping up with school work while working as a part timer is a difficult job, and we congratulate these girls on their fine work.

Third row: Lucille De Ritto, Nancy Lohnes, Sandra Chase, Vincente Klim, Leona Klim, Patricia St. Onge, Sandia Smalley, Majorie Connors.

Other Monitors not present: Jane Duggan, Elizabeth Hatch, Joyce Ippilito, Sherida Lothrop, Sandia Marcin, Patricia Mehl, June Roxborough, Judith Samson, Carol Smith, Barbara Stone, Judy Stone, Roberta Stone, Sheila Watson, Elaine Yenovkian, Roberta Zibel.

Library Monitors

The Library Monitors, under the supervision of Miss Helen C. Converse, are constantly busy performing their various duties during all the class hours and before and after school. The many librarians have formed a club which meets one Monday a month. Because these girls serve efficiently, the material in the library is always at our disposal.

Cheerleaders

Will we ever forget?
"Is anybody happy? Well, yes.
Is anybody sad? Well, no.
Well — let's give a holler,
And let's go!"

To the cheerleaders who worked fervently whether we were winning or losing we owe many thanks. Under the leadership of Miss Doris E. Brooks and the head cheerleader Alice Noonan, the unique cheers and formations added extra enthusiasm and spirit to each game.

Top row, left to right: Tina Dorn, Rosalie Piscitelli, Sandra Hicks, Gloria Savignano, Joyce Anderson.

Girls' Sports Council

Girls' Sports Council, open to junior and senior girls interested in learning the ethics and principles behind each sport, has many candidates every year. Early in the fall the girls are instructed by Miss Doris E. Brooks, and, after a series of tests has been successfully completed, the candidate becomes a member of this very active council. Some of the many duties of the girls, who must put in at least twenty hours a year, are officiating at junior high school games, intramural sports, junior high school play day, and the Faculty-Varsity game.

"Our Miss Brooks," the girls' physical education director, has tried to instill high ideals and fine moral character into every student, both boys and girls. Although she is a girls' teacher, she has influenced many students with whom she has come into contact. The Class of 1956 is very grateful to her for all the work she has done for us!

Stagecraft

One of the most useful groups needed behind the scenes at all social functions, plays, and assemblies is the stagecraft crew. Although the members of this organization may seem to go without praise many times, their hard work and untiring efforts are appreciated by all who participate in the programs or watch them. Hearty thanks to Mr. John F. Burbank and his wonderful group of boys!

Musical Groups

A very active group this year was the Girls' Glee Club, consisting of sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Their busy schedule included participation in the Christmas Pageant, the Brockton All-City Music Festival, the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival at Needham, singing for all three classes in assemblies, and numerous P. T. A. engagements. A highlight of the year's events was the sending of four delegates, Patricia Carreiro, Barbara Mattinson, Natalie Ekholm and Sandra Fruzzetti, to the All-State Music Festival at Pittsfield. This has been a thoroughly enjoyable activity for both participants and listeners. Congratulations to Mr. Robert A. White and the chorus.

A popular music group this year, the Harmonics, under the direction of Mr. Robert A. White, has carried on a busy program. Besides local singing engagements, the girls participated in assembly programs for all three classes, and sang in the Brockton All-City Music Festival and the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival at Needham.

The Galloneers, a group of unusually talented singers selected from the Male Chorus, frequently give concerts during the year. They have spent many hours at rehearsals and have been amply rewarded by being invited to give concerts at many nearby schools. The boys are under the leadership of Mr. Rodney F. May.

Girls' Glee Club

Sixth row: Deborah Sampson, Mr. Walter Smith, Constance Papineau.

Band

With its consistently excellent performances, this year's Brockton High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Walter M. Smith, has maintained the high standards set by former Brockton Bands. All who attended the B. H. S. football games appreciated the precision marching and appropriate music furnished by these colorfully garbed musicians. Our band also helped bolster our basketball team spirit at the Tech Tourney in Boston Garden, where it won the admiration of everyone present. In addition to playing at the athletic events, the band takes part in other worthwhile activities, such as the Brockton Spring Concert at the West Junior High School, and the annual State Music Festival which will be held in Needham this Spring. We at Brockton High School are proud of our fine band members, both of the way they play, and of the method in which they, as a group, conduct themselves at home and away.

Orchestra

As they enter the hall for the Thursday assemblies, Brockton High pupils are greeted by the music of the Brockton High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Walter Smith. Although the chief function of this musical group is to entertain at assemblies, it also plays at the class play in December. In addition to belonging to the Brockton High Orchestra, several members are also active in the All City Orchestra, and in the All State Orchestra, which give several concerts during the year. The orchestra, for the many fine contributions it has made during the year, is appreciated by all B. H. S.
